

Court Plus for Men

who use violence, abuse and coercion within relationships

CAXTON COMMUNITY LEGAL CENTRE

provides free legal and social support services to people who experience disadvantage, trauma and marginalisation.

OUR GOALS

- keep women and children safe by working directly with consenting males who use violence, abuse and coercion within intimate, family or informal-care relationships
- hold men accountable for their offending whilst addressing a pattern of behaviours and associated needs or issues

WHAT WE OFFER

We offer timely case-management support by a social worker for individual men in the Greater Brisbane area to reduce the risks of committing domestic and family violence and of reoffending. This may include flexible assistance over several months with:

- homelessness, substance misuse and mental-health services
- access to programs that support changes in behaviour.

WHO CAN REFER

- specialist services
- courts
- police
- community and government agencies
- individuals

HOW TO MAKE A REFERRAL

Client consent must be provided.

P: Karla on (07) 3214 6360 or 0436 855 046

E: courtplus@caxton.org.au
(please include client name, DOB, phone number and the other party's name and phone number) or submit the referral form (attached below).

COURT PLUS FOR MEN

referral form

Please complete and send this form to courtplus@caxton.org.au
For enquiries, please call Karla on (07) 3214 6360 or 0436 855 046

Referral date:	CC (office use only)
CLIENT DETAILS
Full name:
Address:
Safe phone number:		DOB:
Has the client consented to be contacted by us? Yes No
Is the client Aboriginal Torres Strait Islander
Client's preferred language:
Is an interpreter required? Yes No
OTHER PARTY DETAILS
Full name:
DOB:		Phone no.:
REFERRER DETAILS
Referrer name:
Organisation or relationship to referred person:
Referrer phone no.:		Referrer email:
OTHER INFORMATION			